

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Jacek Grob – Chicago Territory Sales Manager

We are pleased to announce that Jacek Grob has joined LAARS Heating Systems as the Chicago Territory Sales Manager, reporting to Van Culberson, LAARS North Central Regional Manager. Jacek's start date was December 11, 2017. In this newly created role, Jacek will be working with Van Culberson and our sales channel partners to grow LAARS market share in the Chicago territory.

Jacek comes to LAARS Heating Systems from the Chicago area Rep Firm, Boilersouce, where he was the VP Business Development. Jacek has made a career of focusing on the Chicago hydronic and plumbing markets where he has strong engineering and contractor relationships and contacts. Through his 20-year career Jacek has represented many product lines including: AERCO, Bryan Steam, CAMUS, DeDietrich, Hamilton Engineering, Hurst, Miura, Precision Boilers, Raypak, Sussmann, and Unilux to name a few. Jacek is also a combustion expert who has represented Gordon Piatt, Riello, Power Flame, and Webster burners over the years. Jacek's strong technical knowledge, great interpersonal skills, and follow through will make him an asset to our organization.

Jacek is a 1987 graduate of Warsaw University where he earned a Bachelor's degree in Liberal Arts. Jacek is an active member in the Chicago ASPE and ASHRAE chapters.

Jacek's role as the Chicago Territory Manager demonstrates our commitment and focus to growing LAARS market share in the key Chicago market. Please join me in welcoming Jacek on his new position.
